Learning Outcomes/Competencies: At the completion of this course, the learner will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Understand that culturally responsive teaching goes beyond pedagogy, it relies heavily on the mind and heart. (InTASC 2, 4, 5, 8)</li> <li>2. Reflect on the importance of responsive and culturally responsive practices in the classroom setting. (InTASC 2, 5, 9)</li> <li>3. Gain and implement strategies and effective tools to build capacity with academic vocabulary, literacy, language, and situational appropriateness. (InTASC 1, 2, 3, 7, 8)</li> </ol>

4. Learn a pedagogical framework for infusing appropriate, engaging, and responsive teaching practices in diverse classrooms. (InTASC 2, 3, 5, 10)

Course Description: This course and its text, Culturally and Linguistically Responsive Teaching and Learning, provides educators with a pedagogical framework for infusing appropriate, engaging, and responsive teaching practices in diverse classrooms. The course will provide resources for concrete, practical activities and strategies that address culture and language in five areas: classroom management, academic literacy, academic vocabulary, academic language, and learning environment. This course will empower and excite educators to embrace and place value on students' culture and language, allowing them to thrive in the classroom setting.

Learning Strategies: Professional literature analysis, personal reflection, project-based learning.

Experiential Learning Opportunities: Students will be reflecting on the assessments and tools that they develop/learn about in class and measuring/estimating the intended impact on student learning in the classroom. Students will learn by doing while completing a variety of activities throughout the course.

Course Assignments

Text Questions: Read and Reflect- (90 points)

Each text question is designed to get you thinking about the concepts provided by the author. As you read the text, use the questions to help you reflect and how the information can be related to your current work. Each response is expected to be one paragraph or more.

1. What could prevent you from VABing a student or a colleague?
2. Think of the last time you had a biased thought and how you responded. What cultural behaviors are you seeing in a negative way as it applies to your students?
3. Who are your underserved students? What data do you have to support your claim? What approaches, interventions, programs, or curricula are you using that may not be adequately meeting their needs?
4. How does CLR pedagogy strengthen the interrelationship between classroom management and effective learning?
5. How are your student movements connected to instructional activities?
6. What is your favorite professional source for ideas about teaching vocabulary? In what ways have you found it helpful? In what ways does the source support concepts in culturally and linguistically responsive teaching?
7. In your classroom, what type of culturally responsive texts are your students being exposed to?
8. How do your students respond to read-aloud activities?
9. How do you validate and affirm your students' home languages?
10. As of right now, where are you in the CLR pool?

Application #1- (45 points)

Who are you? Identify the Rings of Culture for yourself. For each ring, provide a behavior or attribute that you do solely linked to that identity. Consider how you might learn about your students using the rings. There is an example in the book for you to use as a guide. (2-3 pages, APA)

Application #2- (45 points)

Consider the common cultural behaviors listed in Figure 3.2. Are you able to culturally align them to some of your own students, part or present? Which behaviors are most common in your classroom/ school? Lastly, how have you validated and affirmed these cultural behaviors, or plan to in the future? (2-3 pages, APA)

Action Research- (100 points)

Research two articles that discuss best practices for culturally and linguistically responsive teaching and learning. Compare your research to the ideas discussed in the text. Are they similar? Explain. (3-5 pages, APA)

- Articles must be recent, having been published within the last 5 to 7 years
- Cited, you must provide the web address or other identification for the research you conducted. Include the date that it was published/retrieved, as well as the author(s).

Evaluation Essay

Identify the current level of your school in regards to the CLR pool (Figure 8.1). Discuss the reasons they are at that current level (what is your school doing or not doing). Lastly, highlighting the most important ideas read in the text, explain what it would require for your school to reach the “free-styler” label. (3-5 pages, APA)

Journal entries

Journals are designed to demonstrate that students are reflecting on and implementing concepts and strategies in their own education settings. Journal entries are to be roughly 2-3 paragraphs each. Students are expected to complete 10 entries over the course of the class. You may use the same type of journal entry more than once. Make sure to include some examples of what you have actually done to support your thoughts whenever appropriate. Some examples of acceptable journal topics include:

- How has what you learned about a strategy/topic changed the way you think?
- What were the results of trying something new that you learned in class, and how could you improve it next time?
- Reflections on conversations you had with students, colleagues or administrators about what you have learned.
- Research you’ve discovered on a topic and how it complements or contradicts what the author says.
- These are a few examples, but any journal entry along these lines is acceptable. Remember that you can use the same journal topic more than once to examine different concepts or strategies, or even to examine different impacts on multiple types of classes.

End of Course Survey

Now that you are finished with this class, please take the time to help us improve our product. In order to make sure that we are providing the best possible service, please take our survey. We appreciate your help and your commitment to the profession.

CSU-Pueblo's Policies

Accommodations: Colorado State University-Pueblo abides by the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, which stipulates that no student shall be denied the benefits of an education "solely by reason of a handicap." If you have a documented disability that may impact your work in this class and for which you may require accommodations, please see the Disability Resource & Support Center as soon as possible to arrange accommodations. In order to receive accommodations, you must be registered with and provide documentation of your disability to the Disability Resource & Support Center, which is located in the Library and Academic Resources Center, Suite 169.

Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty is any form of cheating which results in students giving or receiving unauthorized assistance in an academic exercise or receiving credit for work which is not their own. In cases of academic dishonesty, the instructor will inform the chair of the department prior to implementation of punitive action. Academic dishonesty is grounds for disciplinary action by both the instructor and the Dean of Student Services and Enrollment Management. Any student judged to have engaged in academic dishonesty may receive a failing grade for the work in question, a failing grade for the course, or any other lesser penalty which the instructor finds appropriate. To dispute an accusation of academic dishonesty, the student should first consult with the instructor. If the dispute remains unresolved, the student may then state his or her case to the department chair (or the dean if the department chair is the instructor of the course).

Academic dishonesty is a behavioral issue, not an issue of academic performance. As such, it is considered an act of misconduct and is also subject to the University disciplinary process as defined in the CSU-Pueblo Student Code of Conduct Policies and Procedures Manual. Whether or not punitive action has been implemented by the faculty, a report of the infraction should be submitted to the Dean of Student Services and Enrollment Management who may initiate additional disciplinary action. A student may appeal a grade through the Academic Appeals Board. The Dean of Student Services and Enrollment Management's decision may be appealed through the process outlined in the Student Code of Conduct Policies and Procedures Manual.

Mandatory Reporting: Colorado State University-Pueblo is committed to maintaining respectful, safe, and nonthreatening educational, working, and living environments. As part of this commitment, and in order to comply with federal law, the University has adopted a Policy on Discrimination, Protected Class Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Intimate Partner Violence, Stalking, & Retaliation. You can find information regarding this policy, how to report violations of this policy, and resources available to you, on the Office of Institutional Equity's website (www.csupueblo.edu/institutional-equity).

The InTASC Model Core Teaching Standards (April 2011)

The Learner and Learning

Standard #1: Learner Development

The teacher understands how learners grow and develop, recognizing that patterns of learning and development vary individually within and across the cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and physical areas, and designs and implements developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences.

Standard #2: Learning Differences

The teacher uses understanding of individual differences and diverse cultures and communities to ensure inclusive learning environments that enable each learner to meet high standards.

Standard #3: Learning Environments

The teacher works with others to create environments that support individual and collaborative learning, and that encourage positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation.

Content Knowledge

Standard #4: Content Knowledge

The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the discipline(s) he or she teaches and creates learning experiences that make these aspects of the discipline accessible and meaningful for learners to assure mastery of the content.

Standard #5: Application of Content

The teacher understands how to connect concepts and use differing perspectives to engage learners in critical thinking, creativity, and collaborative problem solving related to authentic local and global issues.

Instructional Practice

Standard #6: Assessment

The teacher understands and uses multiple methods of assessment to engage learners in their own growth, to monitor learner progress, and to guide the teacher's and learner's decision making.

Standard #7: Planning for Instruction

The teacher plans instruction that supports every student in meeting rigorous learning goals by drawing upon knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, as well as knowledge of learners and the community context.

Standard #8: Instructional Strategies

The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage learners to develop deep understanding of content areas and their connections, and to build skills to apply knowledge in meaningful ways.

Professional Responsibility

Standard #9: Professional Learning and Ethical Practice

The teacher engages in ongoing professional learning and uses evidence to continually evaluate his/her practice, particularly the effects of his/her choices and actions on others (learners, families, other professionals, and the community), and adapts practice to meet the needs of each learner.

Standard #10: Leadership and Collaboration

The teacher seeks appropriate leadership roles and opportunities to take responsibility for student learning, to collaborate with learners, families, colleagues, other school professionals, and community members to ensure learner growth, and to advance the profession.
