InTASC 6
Course Description: This course is designed for aspiring and current educators seeking to deepen their expertise in special education methodologies across various categories of disabilities. The course provides a comprehensive exploration of effective teaching strategies, legal and ethical considerations, assessment techniques, and collaborative practices essential for supporting students with diverse learning needs. Participants will engage in a critical analysis of contemporary issues in special education, learning to design and implement individualized education programs (IEPs), utilize inclusive teaching practices, and foster a collaborative environment with families and professionals. Emphasis is placed on integrating theory with practical application to prepare educators for the dynamic challenges they will encounter in the field of special education.
Learning Strategies: Professional literature analysis, whole group discussions, personal reflection, application assignments and project-based learning.
Experiential Learning Opportunities: Students will be reflecting on the assessments and tools that they develop/learn about in class and measuring/estimating the intended impact on student learning in the classroom. Students will learn by doing while completing a variety of activities throughout the course.

Format of the Course and Submitting Work

You are required to complete all of the assessments with a total grade of an A or B in order to receive the credit for the course. It is recommended that the coursework be completed in the sequence listed below in the assessments chart below. This is an ONLINE course that runs for a five (5) week duration. Each week as directed by your instructor you will have assignments due. Answer and Discuss and Reflect and Respond assignments will be completed online using our LMS(Learning Management Software) Canvas. Your application, research project and evaluation assignments will be submitted electronically to your instructor. Files can be saved in PDF's or WORD Documents. You can also share via Google Drive format. Please contact your instructor if you have any questions or need help with the Google Drive format.

Assessments		Approximate contact hours for each assessment

Course Schedule-

Week 1

- Syllabi/assignment review
- Read chapters 1-2 in your textbook.
- Answer and Discussion Activity- Answer week #1 instructor posted online question by Tuesday.
- Reflect and Respond Activity- Post/communicate 2 responses online to your colleagues' answers by Thursday.

Week 2

- Read chapters 3-4 in your textbook.
- Answer and Discussion Activity- Answer week #1 instructor posted online question by Tuesday.
- Reflect and Respond Activity- Post/communicate 2 responses online to your colleagues' answers by Thursday.

Application #1- Due Sunday end of week #2 (45 points)

Create a presentation that covers the following from the first 4 chapters:

- Part 1: Legal Frameworks: Present an overview of the major legal protections for students with disabilities and their impact on educational practice.
- Part 2: Assessment Strategies: Discuss various assessment methods used in special education, highlighting their strengths and limitations.

Presentation should be 10-15 slides.

Week 3 -Class Inequalities

- Read chapters 5-6 in your textbook.
- Answer and Discussion Activity- Answer week #1 instructor posted online question by Tuesday.
- Reflect and Respond Activity- Post/communicate 2 responses online to your colleagues' answers by Thursday.

Application #2- Due Sunday end of week #3 (45 points)

Write a 1-2 page essay that addresses the following two components:

- Part 1: Accommodating Diverse Learners: Discuss the various accommodations and modifications necessary for supporting diverse learners, as outlined in Chapter 5. Highlight the importance of tailoring educational approaches to meet the unique needs of each student.
- Part 2: Effective Transition Planning: Reflect on the importance of transition planning for students with disabilities, as discussed in Chapter 6. Explore effective strategies for preparing students for transitions, whether they are between grade levels, schools, or into post-secondary life and employment.

Week 4

- Read chapter 7-8 in your textbook.
- Answer and Discussion Activity- Answer week #1 instructor posted online question by Tuesday.
- Reflect and Respond Activity- Post/communicate 2 responses online to your colleagues' answers by Thursday.

Research Assignment- Due Sunday end of week #4 (100 points)

Conducting your own research, and using the information from the book, choose one of the following options for a 2-3 page paper.

Option 1: Research Classroom Management Strategies. Investigate effective classroom management techniques and behavior intervention strategies for students with disabilities. Focus on how these strategies can be tailored to address specific behavioral challenges and promote a positive learning environment.

Option 2: Explore Service Delivery Options. Research the range of service delivery options available in special education. This includes inclusive classrooms, resource rooms, pull-out services, and other models. Analyze the benefits and challenges of each option, considering factors like individual student needs, resource availability, and educational outcomes.

Week 5

- Read chapter 9-10 in your textbook
- Answer and Discussion Activity- Answer week #1 instructor posted online question by Tuesday.
- Reflect and Respond Activity- Post/communicate 2 responses online to your colleagues' answers by Thursday.

Final Evaluation Assignment due by Sunday night end of week # 5 (100 points)

Synthesize your learning from the course textbook and your own research findings. The paper should offer a comprehensive analysis of key concepts in special education, including legal frameworks, assessment strategies, instructional methodologies, classroom management, and service delivery options. Additionally, you are encouraged to integrate your personal insights and experiences related to these topics. The paper should be 3-5 pages in length.

Things to consider:

Review of Key Concepts:

- Provide an overview of the major themes and concepts covered in the course textbook, including legal aspects of special education, assessment techniques, instructional strategies, classroom management, and service delivery models.

Integration of Research Findings:

- Incorporate findings from your own research conducted during the course. This might include insights from application assignments, case studies, or additional literature reviews.

Personal Insights and Reflections:

- Reflect on how the course content and your research have influenced your understanding of special education. Discuss any changes in your perspectives, insights gained, and how this knowledge might impact your future practice as an educator.

Evaluation of Special Education Practices:

- Critically evaluate current practices in special education, considering the effectiveness, challenges, and potential areas for improvement. Use evidence from the textbook and your research to support your arguments.

Conclusion:

- Summarize your key findings and reflections, emphasizing the importance of continued learning and adaptation in the field of special education.

Journaling

Journals are designed to demonstrate that students are reflecting on and implementing concepts and strategies in their own education settings. Journal entries are to be roughly 2-3 paragraphs each. Students are expected to complete 10 entries over the course of the class. These are done at your own pace and are to be shared with your instructor at the end of class. You will not need to share them with the other students. You may use the same type of journal entry more than once. Make sure to include some examples of what you have actually done to support your thoughts whenever appropriate. Some examples of acceptable journal topics include:

- How has what you learned about a strategy/topic changed the way you think?
- What were the results of trying something new that you learned in class, and how could you improve it next time?
- Reflections on conversations you had with students, colleagues or administrators about what you have learned.
- Research you've discovered on a topic and how it complements or contradicts what the author says.
- These are a few examples, but any journal entry along these lines is acceptable. Remember that you can use the same journal topic more than once to examine different concepts or strategies, or even to examine different impacts on multiple types of classes.

End of Course Survey

Now that you are finished with this class, please take the time to help us improve our product. In order to make sure that we are providing the best possible service, please take our survey. We appreciate your help and your commitment to the profession.

The ten INTASC standards are listed below. Specific standards for knowledge, dispositions, and performances accompany each principle, but space does not permit listing them below. The InTASC Model Core Teaching Standards (April 2011)

The Learner and Learning

Standard #1: Learner Development

The teacher understands how learners grow and develop, recognizing that patterns of learning and development vary individually within and across the cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and physical areas, and designs and implements developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences.

Standard #2: Learning Differences

The teacher uses understanding of individual differences and diverse cultures and communities to ensure inclusive learning environments that enable each learner to meet high standards.

Standard #3: Learning Environments

The teacher works with others to create environments that support individual and collaborative learning, and that encourage positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation.

Content Knowledge

Standard #4: Content Knowledge

The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the discipline(s) he or she teaches and creates learning experiences that make these aspects of the discipline accessible and meaningful for learners to assure mastery of the content.

Standard #5: Application of Content

The teacher understands how to connect concepts and use differing perspectives to engage learners in critical thinking, creativity, and collaborative problem solving related to authentic local and global issues.

Instructional Practice

Standard #6: Assessment

The teacher understands and uses multiple methods of assessment to engage learners in their own growth, to monitor learner progress, and to guide the teacher's and learner's decision making.

Standard #7: Planning for Instruction

The teacher plans instruction that supports every student in meeting rigorous learning goals by drawing upon knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross- disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, as well as knowledge of learners and the community context.

Standard #8: Instructional Strategies

The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage learners to develop deep understanding of content areas and their connections, and to build skills to apply knowledge in meaningful ways.

Professional Responsibility

Standard #9: Professional Learning and Ethical Practice

The teacher engages in ongoing professional learning and uses evidence to continually evaluate his/her practice, particularly the effects of his/her choices and actions on others (learners, families, other professionals, and the community), and adapts practice to meet the needs of each learner.

Standard #10: Leadership and Collaboration

The teacher seeks appropriate leadership roles and opportunities to take responsibility for student learning, to collaborate with learners, families, colleagues, other school professionals, and community members to ensure learner growth, and to advance the profession.
